FACILITIES

- Sauna – big enough for six
- Television (Irish and UK channels), DVD and video recorder
- Three bedrooms along with bathroom facilities are on the ground floor for easy access.
- Domestic equipment includes crockery, cutlery and utensils, pots and pans, microwave oven, electric cooker and hob, refrigerator, fridge freezer, automatic washing machine, tumble drier, radio and hi-fi system, iron and ironing board, telephone (local, emergency and incoming calls)
- Mobile phone coverage
- Linen and towels included
- Oil-fired central heating
- Full-size snooker table (limited space)
- Caretaker close by for assistance
- Babysitting available
- Pets and smoking are not allowed

ACTIVITIES AND INFORMATION

Fishing, watersports, golf, walking, island trips, garden visits and many more activities are available in the immediate area. For a flavour of the district see www.mizenhead.net also try www.schull.ie and www.skibbheritage.com

GETTING THERE

Dunmanus House is a two-hour drive from Cork International Airport where car hire is available from major companies. Cork is also served by ferries.

Dublin

Shannon

Rosslare

Cork

Dunmanus House

Design by Tom Cooper © 2007
www.tcnews.co.uk

DUNMANUS HOUSE
GOLEEN, COUNTY CORK

Your home away from home in Ireland

ACCOMMODATION

- Fully equipped kitchen – 18' by 15'
- Dining room opening from kitchen – 15' by 15'
- Sitting room with open fire and double doors to terrace – 24' by 26'
- Balcony seating area
- Bedroom 1 with double bed, en suite bathroom with shower – 16' by 16'6"
- Dressing room/bedroom 5 with double sofa bed 12' by 15'
- Entrance hall – 23' by 8'6"
- South-facing solarium – 22' by 12'
- Utility room with cloakroom
- Off the hall is the ground-floor bedroom wing
- Bedroom 2 with king-size double bed – 14'6" by 12'
- Bedroom 3 with twin beds 14'6" by 12'
- Bedroom 4 with king-size bed and single bed with en suite bathroom 13'6" by 18'
- Two further bathrooms adjacent to bedrooms 2 and 3
- The loft area above the bedroom wing is carpeted and lit with windows that are safe for children. The area is fully furnished with six beds, a sofa bed and a table tennis table.

Dunmanus House

Whether it is watching a fiery Atlantic sunset, relaxing on the deck as the tides stir the azure waters of Dunmanus Bay below, or taking a stroll on your own private headland and maybe glimpsing a seal diving for fish, Dunmanus House is the perfect place to enjoy the natural beauty of Ireland at its best.

The stone-built house nestles into a hillside on the Mizen Peninsula with panoramic views stretching from headlands and islands to the east, Dunmanus Bay and the Sheep's Head Peninsula to the north, and west towards Mizen Head and the open Atlantic beyond.

Set in 15 acres of open country directly on the coast this is a place to get away from it all, yet restaurants, friendly pubs, sandy beaches, villages, small towns and a host of holiday activities are all close at hand.

With five double bedrooms and an adaptable furnished loft area, Dunmanus House has room for many but the layout makes it a cosy getaway for just two. The house, built in the 1980s, is equipped to a high standard to help you enjoy a comfortable stay.

(Clockwise from top left) Enjoying the view from the deck. Sunrise and sunset (inset) on Dunmanus Bay. The house has a well-furnished dining room, comfortable bedrooms and a luxurious lounge.

West Cork

The Mizen Peninsula is known the world over for its wild natural beauty. Breathtaking beaches, small coves and harbours and stunning coastal walks are all waiting to be discovered at your doorstep.

This finger of granite reaching out into the Atlantic was once the final port-of-call for ships bound for the Americas, now its small harbours, villages and towns are havens for fine restaurants and friendly pubs.

The warm waters of the Gulf Stream lap this far south-western corner of Ireland – don't be surprised to see palm trees – making the waters at broad sandy beaches like Barleycove even more tempting.

Fishing, sailing and other watersports are popular activities and nearby Schull is a convenient centre.